O*NET Online is a database that contains well researched job descriptions and other job information that exist in the United States (both government and private). It is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Labor. These jobs are grouped by occupation and will provide a fuller range of job information, such as specific Knowledge, Skills, Abilities, Wages, and Job Outlook.

www.online.onetcenter.org

California Career Zone is a way for students to explore exciting jobs and occupations in California and to learn about what career paths interest them.

www.cacareerzone.org

California Employment Development Department offers career information through its California Occupational Guides and Occupation Profiles.

www.labormarketinfo.edd.ca.gov/occguides

Occupational Outlook Handbook online edition lists hundreds of different types of jobs including the following information: training and education, earnings, expected job prospects, what workers do on the job, and working conditions. This is provided by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

https://www.bls.gov/ooh/

San Diego Workforce Partnership contains San Diego County regional information on local occupations.

https://workforce.org/
Career Search Database

This website allows users to explore careers, conduct a job search, get guidance with resumes and interviews, and much more.

www.careersearchdatabase.com

Bureau of Labor Statistics

The Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor is the principal Federal agency responsible for measuring labor market activity, working conditions, and price changes in the economy.

www.bls.gov